Bruce Hornsby, The Valley Road

Sometimes I lead, sometimes I follow This time I'll go where she wants me to go She said maybe today, maybe tomorrow Go deep in the woods down the low valley road

While no one was lookin' on the old plantation He took her all the way down the long valley road They sent her away not too much later And left him walking down the old valley road Walk on, walk on, walk on alone Walk on, walk on, walk on alone, alone

Out in the hall, they were talking in a whisper Everybody noticed she was gone awhile Somebody said she's gone to her sister's Everybody knew what they were talking about, whoa

While no one was lookin' on the old plantation He showed her what they do down the long valley road She came back around like nothing really happened And left him standing on the old valley road Walk on, walk on, walk on alone Walk on, walk on, walk on, walk on On the valley road

Standing like a stone on the old plantation The rich old man would have never let him in Good enough to hire, not good enough to marry When it all happens nobody wins

Walk on, walk on, walk on alone Walk on, walk on, walk on, walk on alone, alone
