

Bruce Springsteen, Child Bride

a lovely, poignant song about a man fated to be kept apart from his true love

&quot;Well, sometimes I dream of gettin' outta here, Headin' down towards them old tracks
I swore I'd come and get her
But I know I ain't never goin' back

&quot;There's nights I can't sleep
No matter how hard I try
So from my window I watch the moonlight
Fall on the far hillside

&quot;I imagine I put on my jacket,
Go down to this little roadside bar
Pick a stranger and spin around the dance floor
To a Mexican guitar&quot;
