

Bruce Springsteen, Let's Go

I hear the guitars ringing out
Ringing out down union street
I hear the lead singer shouting out yeah
I wanna be a slave to the beat
Yeah, I want something that'll break my chains
Something to break my heart
Something to shake my brains
Little rocker ? ? ? ? ? around (on?) tonight (delight?)
So meet me on down
Meet me on down

I wanna be where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are
Where the bands are
I wanna be where the bands are

I...wanna.....be
I...wanna.....be
I...wanna.....be
Where the bands are
Where the bands are
I...wanna.....be
Where the bands are
I wanna start a new life

We left our home in the hillside (?)
We left back family and our friends (?)
We came down here to ...
To start all over again
We left when the fields were ...

...
I wanna start a new life
I wanna start a new life
I wanna ... forget about the man that I used to be
