

Bruno Mars, Anderson .Paak, Silk Sonic, Put On

I could pretend when I'm out with my friends
I aint thinking about you
I could pretend like I aint in my feelings
But that aint true
No!
When I called you out your name
That was my ego my pride and pain
I should be a movie star the way I play the part
Like everything's ok.

Now i try to be the life of the party
All night buying shots for everybody
But it's all jus tan act
Cause u can't have you back
Without you been going crazy

Tryna put on a smile
Tryna fight theses from crying
But, Lord knows, i am dying , dying
Tryna put on a smile
Out there smiling like a fool
When the only thing worth smiling for Baby Girl, the only thing worth smiling for was
YOu! /8x
