

Brutus, Liar

Before
My eyes
This shit hurt
You've been lied to
Many times

I stayed this long so I might as well stay
I've been waiting, I've been fading to the ground

Rather been there you know
Why am I losing

I never been honest, not even for a day ha
Lalala
Until the door slams in my face
No more

Rather been there you know
Why am I losing

Another day into the darkness
I am the silence in your song
So close no matter where you are
But for today I am a liar
I am so wrong
I was so wrong

Another day into the silence
I am the darkness in your song
So close no matter where you are
But for today I'm just a liar
I was so wrong
