

Bryan Adams, No One Makes It Right

Everything's been said, A hundred times
Everything's been said, A hundred times

Then I know, if I know you
It takes one more time
No one holds the night,
The way you do
No one holds the night
The way you do
Then I know, If I know you
It takes one more night

No one makes it right
Like you do Like you do
No one makes it right
Like you do Like you do
No one makes it right like you

I guess you're moving out
So you say
I guess you're moving out
So you say
Oh I know if I know you
I've got no more saying

No one makes it right
Like you do Like you do
No one makes it right
Like you do Like you do
No one makes it right like you

I said it once
I said it always
