Bryan Adams, Wastin' Time

Could have been a winner, Should have taken me. It was so damn cold I shoulda held ya 'Cause you were shakin' me. Well, I almost had a question, When she led me home, I spent too much time for one night Bein' alone. She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. Should have got the rambler, Back seat movie for two. I spent too much time for one night Bein' alone with you. Should have seen her daddy 'Case he said she had to go. I spent too much time for one night Bein' all alone. She said you're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me. You're wastin' time, You're takin' a chance on me.
