

Bryan White, On Any Given Night

I'd be fooling myself, thinkin' I've got it made
I just can't assume true love won't fade
I'll keep on listenin' to her, say I'm glad that I found her
Keep on showin' her how much my world turns around her
'Cause...

Chorus:

On any given night
She could walk away
She won't be mine for the takin'
And that's the price that I'd pay
'Cause love's ever-changin'
And in the blink of an eye
Teardrops could fall
And I could lose it all
On any given night

She's the sensitive kind, she needs a connection
And I cannot be so blind to lose my direction
I'll keep on walkin' that mile, show her how far I'll go
Keep on letting her hear all she needs to know

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Teardrops could fall
And I could lose it all
On any given night
