

bryska, California Boy (jjjerk)

Your love is like amnesia
It's like a never met ya, yeah
But don't act like a jjjerk

Everytime time I lay in my bed in the dark
I realize how not okay you are

Things are gonna change in time but lately
Everytime I see you I go crazy
California boy I love you Maybe
But if it doesn't work don't fucking blame me

Things are gonna change in time but lately
Everytime I see you I go crazy
California boy I love you Maybe
But if it doesn't work don't fucking blame me

How's the party in Nevada?
Your T-shirt from Nirvana
It looks better on her, jjjerk

Everytime time I lay in my bed in the dark
I realize how not okay you are

Things are gonna change in time but lately
Everytime I see you I go crazy
California boy I love you Maybe
But if it doesn't work don't fucking blame me

Things are gonna change in time but lately
Everytime I see you I go crazy
California boy I love you Maybe
But if it doesn't work don't fucking blame me

You can call her now and tell her Maybe
That everytime I saw you went crazy
California boy I loved you baby
Well it didn't work don't fucking blame me

Things are gonna change in time but lately
Everytime I see you I go crazy
California boy I love you Maybe
But if it doesn't work don't fucking blame me
