

BT, Flesh

Heaven's forbidden but I'm going soon
Kiss me one last time before I take my flesh away
The light's just going blue
Morning approaches
The pain's still here - I'm empty, empty, empty
The sounds of the world
Our laughter and tears
I've nothing left - I'm empty, empty, empty
I want wisdom on tap
Flowing like water
Strange I want that cause I'm empty, empty, empty
So now eat your words
I hope you choke
I feel nothing no more
I'm empty, empty, empty
I can hardly recognize myself
Heaven's forbidden but I'm going soon
Kiss me one last time before I take my flesh away
