

BT, Lullaby For Gaia

If it's in space and all is lost - A million shattered pieces
Then let it be
I'll tell you things you won't believe - I'll tell you anyway
I'll be released
I'll be released
Blissful bubbles, let me sleep
Rock me gently, don't let me think
Blissful bubbles, please let me sleep
Rock me gently, don't let me think too deep
Too deep
Too deep
Too deep
Don't listen to the hearts of the world - The answer lies within
You know the truth
You know the truth
I'm pleased to meet you, can you come? I'll play real loud for you
Your future's just begun
Your future's just begun
Blissful bubbles, let me sleep
Rock me gently, don't let me think
Blissful bubbles, please let me sleep
Rock me gently, don't let me think too deep
Too deep
Too deep
Too deep
I'll tell you tales you won't believe - I'll tell you anyway
I'll be released
Don't listen to the hearts of the world - The answer lies within
You know the truth
You know the truth
