

Buck-O-Nine, Water In My Head

in all the water she said to me she said to me im sorry
she said to me its alright all that i could say and all that i could do wasnt enough to convince her of what i thought i knew then all her words started to sound the same started to sound the same as water yeah all her words started to sound the same started to sound the same as BLAH BLAH BLAH she talked about some future plans and why our friendship had to end but it wasnt enough to change my mind about what i thought i knew im so confused and now im dealing with all the water in my head [4x]
