

Buck Owens, Cold Cold Wind

(Ira Alen)

In the silence of this darken room
My mind reels with a fragance of your perfume
In your mind stormy thoughts are growing
Mhm, I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing
Woman, I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing

It's been a lifetime since I been close to you
Still no one really knows you like I do
With clouds in your mind and ray in your eyes a showing
Mhm, I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing
Woman I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing.

With my arms around you I hold you tight
Though you do the same to me, girl you don't feel right
You've got a way of leavin' without going
Mhm, I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing
Woman, I feel a cold, cold wind a blowing...
