

Buck Owens, Holdin' On

I'll keep holdin' on though you've stopped trying
'Cause I think it's sad, something beautiful's dying
And we both said that forever was the way true love should be
So I'll be holdin' on when you let go of me.

I'll be holdin' on when you let go
I'm just wonderin' why you don't love me anymore
And that something so good's gone bad My mind just won't believe
So I'll be holding on when you let go of me.

I'll be holding on darling, holding on
I'll be holding on when you let go of me.
Yes, that something so good's gone bad My mind just won't believe
So I'll be holding on when you let go of me...
