

Buck Owens, I Love You So Much It Hurts

Love you so much it hurts
Need you so much it hurts
Want you so much and that's for certain
And if you do me wrong
I'll still tag along
'Cause I love you so much it hurts.

Everybody tells me what a flirt you are
And that's not for certain if that's all you are
But only you and I know what we're reaching for
And darling I'm just reaching out to love you.

Love you so much it hurts
Need you so much it hurts
Want you so much and that's for certain
And if you do me wrong
I'll still tag along
'Cause I love you so much it hurts.

--- Instrumental ---

Rumors of flying, yes they're everywhere
And there's none easy feeling I feel in the air
But I've heard it said what you don't know won't hurt you so
Well, I don't wanna know because I love you so.

Love you so much it hurts
Need you so much it hurts
Want you so much and that's for certain
And if you do me wrong
I'll still tag along
'Cause I love you so much it hurts...
