

Buck Owens, With Lonely

(The Hagers)

She looked at me then laughed at me
Then turned around and walked away
Leaving me another day
Another day with lonely.

It seems like all my trouble starts and ends in the same old way
Being without you
Uh huh, being without you.

Looking around while I'm walking downtown
Tryin' to get rid of lonely
Caring about you thinking about you
Has turned me upside down.

Your love was something to lean on
You've taken it away
I come back to your house at night
To sit on your steps and pray.

Now, I'm alone with lonely
All alone with lonely
Being alone with lonely
Is being lonely alone.

Your love was something to lean on
You've taken it away
I come back to your house at night
To sit on your steps and pray.

Is being lonely
Alone is being so lonely alone...
