

Buck Owens, You Ain't Gonna Have Ol' Buck To

Oh you ain't a gonna have ol' Buck to kick around no more
The last time was the last time and this time it's for sure
The next sound that you hear will be the slamming of the door
And you ain't gonna have ol' Buck to kick around no more

Well I jumped when you whistled and I danced when you sang
I must have looked as silly as a puppet on a string
And for my last performance I'm gonna vanish through the door
And you ain't gonna have ol' Buck to kick around no more
Oh you ain't a gonna have...

[steel]

They say true love's undying that it lives on and on Well if that's really true it's gonna live after I'm gone
Wild horses couldn't hold me here this time it's really it
So if you want that one last kick you better make it quick
Cause you ain't a gonna have...
No you ain't a gonna have ol' Buck to kick around no more
