

Buckethead, Waiting Here

I talked to you today
About all the troubled times when nothing goes
Nothing goes away
And all the things you've told me to believe in

I'm alone in my reveries
I'm alone in the pain you brought on
I'm afraid that you won't see me
And all the times we had

I've been waiting here
Waiting by the phone
I've been touching you
In my only thoughts

Don't you know
That I'm still here
Waiting for you, call me to your
Life insincere

Left your stormy days
Don't you know you're mine?
You see it all behind
Don't you see the sky?

I want us all together
Do you know we're right?
You leave us all denied
Let you all decide

You call me today with your enemies
You call me today with your infinite dreams
We talked about it, you're in my mind
Taking caution, I'm leaving you behind
Taking caution, leaving you behind

I've been waiting here
Waiting by the phone
I've been touching you
In my only thoughts

Don't you know
That I'm still here
Waiting for you, call me to your

Don't you know you're mine?
Left your own behind
Can't you see the sky?

It's a stormy day
Don't you understand?
We're in all behind
Let you all defend

Ah, ah
Take compassion, take compassion
Take compassion, take compassion
Leaving you behind

Don't you know you're mine?

Can't you see the sky?

See them fall behind
Don't you know you're mine?
Can't you do the same?

But can't you do the same?
But can't you do the same?
But can't you do the same?
Leave us all behind
Can't you do the same?
