

Buddhuza, Fall

Fall's coming soon,
I see you're getting cool,
I feel myself
As someone else
I didn't want to be,
I'm leaving first.

I looked through my life
And found so many times
I cursed myself
Because of my past mistakes,
And now I see
It's just the same.

Fall's coming soon,
I still turned out a fool,
It's just my stop
And looking back,
The play is on,
I see the same.
