

Buddhuza, Tomorrow's Today

Your lovely dreams tomorrow
Descend in yesterday,
And there's no space for sorrow
If you live just today.

And I live till tomorrow,
And I love just today,
Yes, I live till tomorrow,
And I love, love, love, love, love.

And if you feel you'd borrow
My love from yesterday,
Remember the rule to follow
That to give is to take.

And I live till tomorrow,
And I love just today,
Yes, I live till tomorrow,
And I love, love, love, love, love.

Sometimes we try to skip the time,
And it works,
And it will,
Unless we learn that it's a crime
To confine ourselves in this still.

Your lovely dreams tomorrow
Descend in yesterday,
And there's no space for sorrow
If you live just today.

And I live till tomorrow,
And I love just today,
Yes, I live till tomorrow,
And I love, love, love, love, love.
