

Buddy Guy, Change In The Weather

Change in the weather
Something is happening here
Change in the weather
Change in the weather
People walkin' round in fear

Yeah, ah, huh, you better duck and run
Get under cover 'cause a change is come
Storm warnings and it looks like rain
Be nothin' left after the hurricane
There is a jungle it ain't no lie
Look at the people
They got terror in their eyes
Bad wind is comin' it can't be denied
They're runnin' with the dogs
And afraid to die

Change in the weather
Change in the weather
Something is happening here
Change in the weather
Change in the weather
People walkin' round in fear

Aha, you best believe it's true
The levee's¹ busted, bad news comin' true
Oh no, there ain't no place to hide
Reach out and pluck you, take you for a ride, yeah
Sheer frustration takin' everything in sight
Won't be no blastin' if we make it through the night
Down on your knees for heaven and pray
But every demon have to have his day

Change in the weather

Change in the weather
Something is happening here
Change in the weather
Change in the weather
People walkin' round in fear

High noon I can't believe my eyes
Wind is ragin' there's a fire in the sky
Ground shakin' everything comin' loose
Run like a coward but it ain't no use
Edge of the river just an ugly scene
People getting pushed, and people gettin' mean
A change is comin; and it's getting' kind of late
There ain't no survivin', there ain't no escape

Change in the weather
Change in the weather
Something is happening here
Change in the weather
Change in the weather
People walkin' round in fear

Come on try
Ah somethin' been happinin' here, yeah

Whoa there's a change
Feel a change comin' on in the weather, yeah, yeah, yeah
Can't you tell it

I can't see it comin' Lord , ahah

Got to got to got to
Got to got to got to feel yeah yeah yeah
Open up your eyes and see
