

Buddy Guy, Sit And Cry (The Blues)

Oh, I've got no one there for now
Since my baby's love had been done with
Well, I don't know what to do
I sit and cry and sing the blues

Well, no one to cry on her sweet name
And my heart is filled with pain
Oh I only think of you
I sit and cry and sing the blues
Blues found in my bloodstream
Blues found in my home
Blues found in my soul
I got blues all in my bones

Oh no one to depend on
Since my baby's love had been gone
Oh I don't know what to do
I sit and cry and sing the blues

Oh yeah!
Come here baby!

Oh no one to depend on
Since my baby's love has been gone
Whoa, I don't know what to do
I sit and cry and sing the blues
I sit and cry and sing the blues
