

Buddy Guy, When My Left Eye Jumps

I've got a strange feelin', whoa, I never felt like this before
Yes, I've got the strangest, strangest feelin', baby, God knows I never felt like this before
You know when my left eye get to jumpin', hmm, I don't know which way to go

When my left eye get to jumpin', and my flesh begin to crawl,
I know you got some other mule, that's kickin' in my stall

And, I've got the strangest, strangest, strangest, whoa, I've never felt like this before
You know when my left eye get to jumpin', God knows I never felt like this before

Have mercy, baby
I hear ya, baby, pray the blues

You know I feel like my baby, she's got a black cat bone
'Cause everything I do, my baby know what's just goin' on

I've got the strangest, strangest feelin', whoa, I never felt like this before
You know when my left eye get to jumpin', whoa, I don't know which way to go
