

Buddy Holly, Reminiscing

I'm just sittin' here reminiscing
Wondering who you've been kissing
Baby, whoa-oh-oh baby

I've been wondering all around
There must be a new guy in town
You don't love me anymore
I'll get over you, baby
Although my heart's still sore
Well, you know my heart's still sore

When I think of all the lies you told
To that young man my heart you sold
You're a cheater and a mean mistreater

When I think of all the fun we had
Kinda makes me feel so sad
I'm lonely for your love
And the longest day I live
It's only you that I'll be thinking of
You know I'm thinkin' of Well, it's you I'm thinking of
Mmhmm, mmhmm
