

Buddy Holly, Soft Place In My Heart

I've got a soft place in my heart for you and the dreams it's caused no one will ever know

I guess you know dear - my love has always been true now there's nothing left to say or do but go

These bitter tears I've shed for you - are all in vain but if you decide you want me back again

Just come back dear and I'll no longer be so blue I've got a soft place in my heart, my darling for you
