

Built To Spill, Shameful Dread

before I get myself unwound come around
docility is tempting bait clearcut faith
you settle with a different god
tiny thoughts
no other way to come to terms no need to learn I'm hoping for a change of heart hundreth start
a president I call my own barely shown
I'll never let you in my head shameful dread
I'm hoping for a change of hope til I spent some time with you thought that everything I do has no weight doesn't float
has no weight
doesn't float
doesn't float Gonna see this through lucky you
