Buju Banton, Justice

One man say, restore the peace by any means Shoot first, then question your enemies Look how the people been suffrin' Before now, this a for even more As they try to mediate between the rich and the poor Them never used to visit such community Them never insure them sa-fe-ty Can you stop the love of the people Where you know their every cry Where they all have justice.

Justice

Will the people want an end to brutality Tell dem all they should respect humanity When you're out there it's nothing but insanity You massacre your own and that's the reality Oh Buju Banton, me don't know partiality...I lya lya, l...

Justice

Now look at the way they treat the people People of the island can't take this here hassle Everyday to suffer, is Jah-mon, it is a struggle Look at how the people them work hard and juggle Some a dem a hustle, and some a dem a love Some a dem a brag, and nuff a dem a buss Listen to the rude boy while I toss The people they want justice
