

Bukka White, Strange Place Blues

I&#039;m a stranger at this place and I&#039;m lookin&#039; for my mother&#039;s
I&#039;m a stranger at this place and I&#039;m lookin&#039; for my mother&#039;s
Well it seems like to me, ooh well, well some of us goin&#039; to wail
I was at mother&#039;s grave, when they put my mother away
I was at mother&#039;s grave, when they put my mother away
And I can&#039;t find no one ooh, well, to take her place
After my mother was put away, I thought my wife would take her place
After my mother was put away, I thought my wife would take her place
I&#039;ll show you the difference &#039;tween a mother and a wife, well, my wife done t
I wished I could find someone to take my mother&#039;s place
I wished I could find someone to take my mother&#039;s place
And if I can&#039;t find no one, ooh well, well you&#039;ll find me at her grave
I&#039;m standin&#039; on my mother&#039;s grave and I wished I could seen her
I&#039;m standin&#039; on my mother&#039;s grave and I wished I could seen her
I&#039;ll be glad when that day comes, ooh well, well when it be to dive me away
