

Bula Matari, Taxi drivers must die

Well everybody's sayin' that they're not so bad.
Everybody's sayin' that we need 'em bad.
Well everybody's got their fuckin' heads up their ass.
Everybody tells me they perform a service,
but the same fuckin' people say they drive 'em nervous.
Well make your fuckin' mind up, you stupid twat.
If you want to see them cry.
Poke 'em in the eye.
Put their fingers in the socket and watch them fry.
Taxi drivers must die!
Everybody's sayin' that they drive 'em nuts,
but when it comes to revenge they ain't got the guts.
Well crawl back into your little 'ole, you little rat.
United and strong we can fight them back.
Teach them all a fucking lesson that they'll never forget,
and watch the little bastards come crawling back.
I'm sorry...
If you want to see them cry.
Poke 'em in the eye.
Put their fingers in the socket and watch them fry.
Taxi drivers must die!
