

Bullet For My Valentine, Gravity

I can't tell if I'm dreaming
I'm not sleeping anymore
am I falling to pieces?
will you wake me when it's over nothing makes sense anymore
am I falling to pieces?

I won't dwell o tomorrow
cause it feels like such a waste of time and it cuts me from the inside but I know I'm gonna be alright

my eyes are widen open build me up /2x
to tear me down
sick of going through the motions you're the gravity that keeps me falling giving up /2x
so you should know
my eyes are wide open
you're the gravity that keeps pulling me down still stuck going nowhere been here many times before never knowing the reason blocking out all the voices screaming just to be ignored were never given a reason

giving up /2x

giving up /2x
so you should know

am I falling to pieces?
am I falling to pieces?
