

Bum Ruckus, At Your Cervix

Finally we can get together
I hope this will last forever
Love is something that I never thought was true
As I look into your eyes
I know we should give this a try
I finally have realized that I love you
What's, it been a month or two
I'm spending all my time with you
All the things I thought was cute kinda piss me off
No i won't throw in the towel
Because you know I'm not shallow
You will always be my gal, yo I love you

There is something I have to say to you

I need you and you need me
Lets just try some honesty
Apologizing over the phone
It's better than sleeping alone

So nine months we've been together
It feels like its been forever
I can't hardly even remember when we fucked
But i do remember when
I was allowed to have some friends
That came quickly to an end when you showed up
What's it been a year or two
Since I got to know the real you
Feels like ten all I've been through it's just to much

All I ask is please don't pout
When I tell you get the fuck out
Do I mean it without a doubt I hate you

Hey this time the story isn't right
I can see this time it won't be me

I hate you and you hate me
Our one thing in common is misery
I'd be better off on my own
I'd rather be sleeping alone
