

Burak Yeter, Friday Night

the work has been done and the boss is gone baby I am on my way to you Friday night

I missed your embrace
seven lonely days
there are so many kisses due Friday night

the week has been long but our love is strong and tonight we will start a new Friday night

these taste of wine
will be so divine
when I am sharin' my glass with you Friday night

the more I kiss you
Friday night
the more I miss you Every night
my love's too big for only Friday night
