

Burden Brothers, Buried In Your Black Heart

Way down, burried in your black heart
I found the part of you i fell for Smiling in the dark you're like a spark
You light my soul on fire
Holding out your hand you understand
That i am sick with desire

Why do i fall for you(x4)
I think I'm gettin iller now
Everytime you come around

Wasted, all our time together
Chasing every brand of pleasure
Lying at your side, eyes open wide
My heart and mind, all vacant
No one has a clue just what you do to me
It's truely magic

Why do i fall for you (x4)
I think I'm getting iller now
Everytime you come around

Why do I fall for you? (x8)
