

Burden Brothers, Let It Go

You know it's simple and true
But nobody can move
Me quite the way you do
Every day, every night
If the timing is right
We become more than just two

Everything we've learned
Every time we've been burned
Has turned to scars and bruises
We give out, we give in
Our blood, our skin
We're both marked losers

Let it go, let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go, let it go
If you think you know the two of us
Well it just don't matter anymore
It just don't matter anymore
And I gotta feel you letting go...

I told you right from the start
Everythign comes apart
Everybody gets crazy
But your heart, your soul
Is all you can know,
And you know, you amaze me

Let it go, let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go, let it go
Everything you think you know about the two of us
It just don't matter anymore

Well it just don't matter anymore
It just don't matter anymore
Everything you think you know, you know
It just dont matter anymore
And I gotta feel...
You letting go

Let it go...
Let it go...

Let it go, let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go, let it go
Let it go, let it go, let it go
Come on let it go
Yeah, let it go
Let it go
Yeah, let it go
Cause I gotta feel...
