Burden Brothers, You're So God Damn Beautiful

You know my love I'm giving up
I just can't do it
I gave my soul, my one and all
And still I blew it
I love you so much, I love you so hard
It's like I don't have a name
And still my love was not enough
And I'm to blame

Look at me now, I'm a wreck
Down on my knees
Everyone knows
You're so god damn beautiful
Now I know everybody goes
Through a little hell sometimes
But it's a sin the shape you left me in
When you kissed me goodbye
You took my heart, tore it all apart
And I took your medicine
You got no soul, me no self control
Here I go again

Look at me now, I'm a wreck
Down on my knees
Now everyone sing
You're so god damn beautiful
