

Buried Alive, Can't Take This From Me

Cant take this from me.

I've gone from end to end and never looked back

I've found my one truth and ran with it

I live, I breathe. All that you gave to me

I live, I breathe. And you will never leave me

Faces turn to family. You're the reason I can breathe.

Those who stood by me, You're the reason i can breathe.

And I wouldnt change a thing

You cant take that from me

All that you gave to me cant take that from me
