

Burlap To Cashmere, Chop Chop

An AWOL lover flies undercover
Before she's crucified
'Cause her ambitions are their suspicions
Of different culture pride

(refrain)

And the world is crying
(the world is crying)
As we move along
(as we move along)
And the world is trying
(the world is trying)
As we move along
(as we move along)
But they're still chopping our tongues for a song
Yeah, yeah, yeah they're singing

(chorus)

Chop Chop, tongue, tongue
That's where we're from
That's what we always wore
If I retell, that's where man fell
When he put foot on floor.

A cool breeze wind blows
Breaks cynic windows
Time to oblivate
The radiation burns segregation
Leader evacuates.

(refrain)

(chorus)

Chop chop Man, sin, that's where we've been
That's what we're forced to buy.
We're killing lovers, sister and brothers.
Then there's that question why
Ohhhh why

(chorus 2x)
