

Burn Season, Any Harder

Its not enough,
When you try to sleep,
And your racing through my head.

Its not enough,
When your in so deep,
That im drowning in my bed.

And i know that,
Life never takes you where you want to,
Go and you just miss things moving faster.

But it looks like everything will be alright,
If you just dont make things harder,
And tonight ill find a way to make it right,
If you dont make things harder.

Its not enough,
When you try to sleep,
And your thinking of the past.

Is it never enough,
When all you want,
Is a sign that this will last.

And you know that,
Im thinking thoughts of you and,
No i thought things turn to disaster.

And it looks like everything will be alright,
If you just dont make things harder,
And tonight ill find a way to make it right,
If you dont make things harder.

Its alright,
Ok,
Will get through another day,
Its alright,
Ok,
Will get through another day.

Looks like everything will be alright,
If you dont make things harder,
And tonight ill find a way to make it right,
If you dont make things harder.

Tonight,
Dont make things harder,
Tonight,
Dont make things harder.
