

Burn Season, Carry On

It's overtaken,
Obsessed with faking,
I'm blind,
Looking at my own reflection.

There's nothing changing,
When I'm overtaken,
The sound of your voice.
In my head, in my head, in my head

I know I can't let go,
Am I just dead and loney?
I'm stuck and incomplete,
Still I know,

I must carry on, carry on
Leave it all behind.
Carry on when you're wrong,
Am I dying inside?

Close my eyes to remind,
How you look when you smile,
Carry on when you're wrong,
I'll pretend I'm alright.

Obsessed with faking,
You know I'm broken inside,
Looking at my own reflection.

Am I lost?
Walking backwards,
To the sound of your voice,
In my head, in my head, in my head.

Cause I know I can't let go,
Am I just dead and lonely?
I'm stuck and incomplete,
Still I know,

I must carry on, carry on
Leave it all behind.
Carry on when you're wrong,
Am I dying inside?

Close my eyes to remind,
How you look when you smile,
Carry on when you're wrong,
I'll pretend I'm alright.

What I need you can't remove,
You don't feel the same as I do,
Guess I've burned myself today.

Carry on, carry on
Leave it all behind.
Carry on when you're wrong,
Am I dying inside?

Close my eyes to remind,
How you look when you smile,
Carry on when you're wrong,
I'll pretend I'm alright.

Carry on, carry on,

In my head, in my head
Carry on, carry on,
In my head, in my head
Carry on, carry on,
In my head, in my head
Carry on, carry on,
In my head, in my head
