

Burn Season, Save Me

Face down today, is this almost over,
Face down this way, i am sticking out,
So lost that im swimming, dementing the cure,
For your glaring and staring.

Am i really screaming loud,
Do i even make a sound,
Can i really scream out loud,
When theres no-one to hear me.

Wont you save me,
Cause im slipping away,
Just save me from myself,
Cause all these angry voices,
Are making my choices,
Please save me from myself.

Take me away, i wish i was sober,
Im taken away, by the sound of your voice,
So lost that im choking, awaiting tonight,
From your glaring and staring, you're scaring.

Am i really screaming loud,
Do i even make a sound,
Can i really scream out loud,
When theres no-one to hear me.

Wont you save me,
Cause im slipping away,
Just save me from myself,
Cause all these angry voices,
Are making my choices,
Please save me from myself.

I heard you say a pray for me
Why cant you take my life away
Cause i need you. Can i be saved

Wont you save me,
Cause im slipping away,
Just save me from myself,
Cause all these angry voices,
Are making my choices,
Please save me from myself.

Am i really screaming loud,
Am i really screaming loud,
Am i really screaming loud,
??????????

Am i really screaming loud,
Am i really screaming loud,
Am i screaming loud,
??????????
