Burn Season, Walk Away

Thinking Am I making More mistakes again Am I ever gonna win

Chasing Never reaching For an open hand It slaps me where I stand

I'm still stuck here
Pretending to be happy
Pretending to be something
When I know it isn't real

Way, you walk away And i dont need anybody I wont need anybody Way, you walk away And i dont need anybody

Changing
Still arranging
Who I really am
You still don't give a damn

Facing
Mind is racing
Finely here I am
It stops me where I stand

Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody I won't need anybody Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody

Walk away

I'm still stuck here Pretending to be happy Pretending to be something When I know it isn't real

Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody I won't need anybody

Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody I won't need anybody

Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody I won't need anybody

Way, you walk away And I don't need anybody I won't need anybody

I'm still stuck here I'm still stuck here I'm still stuck here Here
