

Burning Brides, Stabbed In The Back Of The Heart

Hey, you know something? You fucked me over.
And I just got a couple words to say to you, and this is one of them.
You got the tongue of a snake,
You fought your way to my plate.
And now you hang with the liars,
While I get higher and higher.
Been away for a long, long time now.
Once you're back, you will see what I have become

You're public enemy one,
And you were nothing but fun.
I caught you down on the queen,
And you know just what I mean.
Been all over the goddamn world now,
Once you're back, you will see what I have become.

Stabbed in the back of the heart, oh yeah.

You're on your way to the ground.
You're on your way to the ground.
You're on your way to the ground.
You're on your way to the ground.
You're on your way to the ground.
