

Burning Heads, After Me The Storm

I am the one, i am the one
All things i touch, turn to gold
I am the boss, i am the king
I am the wrestler in the ring

Don't matter if it turns out bad

I'm what you need, i'm what you want
I'm here for me myself and i
I give you love, i give you pain
I give you more, a longer chain

I'm on call cause i'm the best
It's all for me not for the rest
I'm born to win and built to last
I am the future and the past
My enemy becomes my friend
I always win in the end

I am success i can't fail
I am progress you can hail
I am success to inhale
I am progress it's for sale

Don't matter if it turns out bad
I wont be there to see the storm
My short career was a success
Now i don't care if it's a mess

I am success i can't fail
I am progress you can hail
I am success to inhale
I am progress it's for sale

Don't matter if it turns out bad
