

Burning Heads, Goodbye

leave me alone,
there's something broken something wrong,
go on and smile,
what's gone won't come back with a lie.
it's getting harder everyday,
how can i tear myself away,
in it deeper everyday.
well i think, it's goodbye,
i'm gonna get myself a ride,
i'm flying to a different sky.
we did it all,
but now it's "breaking things again";
we took our time,
step by step to get things done,
just a moment brings it down, you never gave a second chance.
well i think, it's goodbye,
i'm gonna get myself a ride,
i'm flying to a different sky.
well i think,
this is the end,
i can't accept the things you said.
and i won't take,
the choice you make,
the path you take.
take a moment,
take your time.
well i think, it's goodbye,
i'm gonna get myself a ride,
i'm flying to a different sky.
