

Burning Heads, Iron Dick

Power 's in your hand
You stand and decide
It's always been a man
Who starts to write the next line

Money's in the hands
Of a chosen few
There's got to be a man
To think for me and you

But this time you see we know
You don't hold the key we know
This time you see we know
We won't let you go ...

Divided people
Central power
Who's gonna be the next clown
Who's gonna break us down

And if it's not a man
Sometimes it's all the same
Iron Dick vs Iron Lady
Do you really care 'bout me

But this time you see we know
You don't hold the key we know
This time you see we know
We won't let you go ...
