

Burning Point, Black Star

Back alleys and secret doorways you always try to find passages to the other worlds but you're missing all the warning signs

Countless days of fighting the quest for the Holy Grail but the mysteries of a man prevail, you just leave blood on your trails

(Pre-chorus)

Haunted by the past memories will last through your life time

Revealing all the pain your mind's gone insane
but it's not an excuse for your acts

(Chorus)

Black Star
shining over you
Black Star
you are always twisting the truth
Black Star
is shining over you
Black Star
but it's not an excuse for your acts

You'll never see a teardrop falling down my face but before you tear my heart out I hide in a secret place

(Pre-chorus)

(Chorus)

In the misty morning, just before the dawn
I hear it calling, calling me...
Out in the darkness, into the light it's finally over the endless night
