

Burning Point, Lake Of Fire

Look at me now, I'm bleeding the river runs red, no more dreaming the dream is over, we lost the war the sun is rising, the last time, nevermore

Remember these words: fragile is the life hold on to the truth, death is not the end my pulse is getting slower, my hands are numb I look at the sky, blinded by the sun

(Chorus)

The Lake of Fire - the holy-land is in flames betrayed by liar - the whole nation face the end

The Lake of Fire - the soulless one's to blame betrayed by liar - for only fortune and fame Betrayed by my brother, forsaken by my kin look at him now, torn apart by enemy within the war is over, hatred grew stronger remember me now, as I am no longer

(Chorus)

The last echoes of the dying hope carried by the wind, the end is closing in no retreat, no surrender is there a reason for this fight? or are we pawns in a game like puppets on strings born without sins, we are losing it all?
