Burt Bacharach, The Bell That Couldn't Jimgle

A Christmas bell was crying then Santa heard it say I just can't seem to jingle and I can't go on the sleigh Then Santa soon discovered the reason that it cried The Bell That Couldn't Jingle it had nothing there inside

Then Santa said Jack Frost will bring my Christmas gift to you And on Christmas Eve you'll jingle just like you were brand new Then Jack Frost froze a teardrop so each time that it swayed The Bell That Couldn't Jingle it went jingling all the way The Bell That Couldn't Jingle it went jingling all the way
