

Burton Cummings, I'd Love To Talk

I'd love to talk but I'm running awfully late
I'd love to talk but I can't communicate
I'd love to talk but maybe we could meet another time...

I'd like to chat but I'm unning out of time
I'd like to chat but eloquence is not mine
I'd love to chat but maybe we could meet another day...

I can get along just fine
Playing freely in my mind
I can have a damn good time at home...
Alone...
