

Burton Cummings, Meanin' So Much

Oh, sweet, sweet, sweet lovin' babe, how'd I ever let you go?
Miss you more as the years go rollin' by
And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know
You lied when I looked you straight in the eye

But oh, you're meanin' so much
Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now
Oh, meanin' so much to me

Ask me how well, how well that I remember, nights in September
Lying holding each other's lovin' charms
And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know
I found you in someone else's arms

But oh, you're meanin' so much
Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now
Oh, meanin' so much to me

I know it's useless, I know it's impossible, I've tried
Can't seem to drink you out of my mind
No sense in lookin', no sense in comin' crawlin' on back
Knowing what it is that I'd find, what I'd find...

Oh night comes falling, bringing darkness again
Bringing teardrops to another lonely man
And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know
When you loved me you would love me and then you ran
Yes you did, now.

But oh, you're meanin' so much
Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now
Oh, meanin' so much to me
